Judges CV: Glenn Buckley (Senhi)

The owning and caring for Chow Chows has been in Glenn's family before he was born, as his Grandfather bought his first Chow in 1949 from the Silverway kennels in Birmingham. Glenn's mom owned Hanoi Tai Ho when she got married in the 1960s. Glenn's first experience of a Chow was in 1984, when his sister had the black Lechan Lady Kassandra from Pam and Stef Godber. His sister Serena, made her up to a Champion. Glenn can also remember attending some of his first shows around this time, looking on from the side of the ring and marking the catalogues he was only ten years old at the time.

Glenn's first experience at exhibiting a Chow was in 2000, when he bought Jowtrix Black Jack of Senhi (Titan), he was a real character and Glenn never knew what to expect as he might behave on one day and on another day misbehave. It was Titan's successes as a youngster that got Glenn noticed in the Chow Breed. Titan gaining his title in 2005 and becoming Top sire in 2003, siring two Champions and achieving a Reserve CC at Crufts in 2004. Titan's Granddaughter Senhi Sweet Sensation (Candy) had achieved similar success including Best Bitch at Chow of the Year in 2007also in 2011 she gained her Champion title at Manchester Dog Show, where she then came 4th in Utility Group under Barry Day.

In 2004 Glenn was invited to become a Committee member of The Chow Chow Club, bringing the Club into the new millennium as one of the younger members of the committee. Glenn participates in general tasks and duties, always looking to help out wherever possible. In 2011 he had taken on the role of Treasurer of The Chow Chow Club which he continues with to the present day.

Glenn passed the CJTS in 2002 and passed the confirmation and movement assessment at the same time. His first judging appointment was in 2006 at Romford and District Canine Society. At this show he judged 12 chows in 3 classes. His first breed club in January 2010 was the North Eastern Chow Chow Club open show. And in the following year Judged the Midland Chow Chow Club July Open show. Glenn awarded CCs in Chows in 2017, his debut Championship Show being WELKS General Championship Show.

Doing the Midland Chow Chow Club Championship Show will be his first Breed Championship Show. Glenn wishes good luck to all the exhibitors who attend. We all take home the best exhibits on the day!
